A FUNNY FILM ABOUT JEB, AND A CRAZY-FOR-PLASTIC WORLD

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13 | 7:30-9 PM

Bag It is a touching and often flat-out-funny film about Jeb Berrier, an average American guy, who is admittedly not a “tree hugger.” Jeb makes a pledge to stop using plastic bags, and this simple act gets him thinking about all kinds of plastic as he embarks on a global tour to unravel the complexities of our plastic world. When Jeb’s journey takes a personal twist, we see how our crazy-for-plastic world has finally caught up to us and what we can do about it. Today. Right now. In addition to the film, representatives from Greengineering will join us to discuss their work and how to reuse and reimagine plastic in today’s world.
